

MAPS AND SUGGESTED READING LIST

Books and maps are available from the Bookloft, 107 E. Main, Enterprise, OR 97828. (541) 426-3351

E-mail: bookloft@oregontrail.net.

Please add $1.75 postage for the first book ($1.25 for the first map) + 50¢ for each additional item.

MAPS:

Hells Canyon National Recreation Area Map $8.00

Imus Wallowa Mountains and Eagle Cap Wilderness $6.00

READING LIST

Wallowa, Land of Winding Waters by Grace Bartlett. A capsule overview of the region featuring information on the region's wildlife, towns, and history. $4.95 pb.

Snake River of Hells Canyon by Carrey, Conley, and Barton. Probably the most readable history of the Snake. Many old photos. 399 pp. $14.95.

Home Below Hells Canyon by Grace Jordan. Family memoir about the Jordans, who, with three young children, moved to Kirkwood Ranch (now a Living History Ranch on the Idaho side of the HCNRA) to raise sheep and weather the Depression. Husband Len Jordan went on to become governor of Idaho and US Senator. 243 pp. $14.95 pb.

From the Wallawas, by Grace Bartlett. A collection of very readable historical essays about Wallowa County. 142 pp. $16.00

Winterkill by Craig Leslie. This engrossing novel set in northeast Oregon and Wallowa County is a study of the relationship between father and son, depicting the life of contemporary Native Americans. $14.00

A Field Guide to Rocky Mountain Wildflowers, Craighead & Craighead, 1963 Houghton Mifflin Co. Best field guide for our area. 277 pps. $16.95

Nez Perce Indians and the Opening of the Northwest, by Alvin Josephy. The definitive work on the Nez Perce and their history after the arrival of the white settlers. $18.00 pb.

Hiking Oregon's Geology by Ellen Morris Bishop & John Eliot Allen. Hiker's companion guide that escorts its readers on a tour of Oregon's most scenic & geologically interesting places. Includes hikes in the Eagle Cap Wilderness and Hells Canyon. $16.95 pb

The Wallawas-Coming of Age in the Wilderness by William Ashworth. A memoir recounting a young man's search for the challenges and solace that wilderness offers. $15.95 pb Islands & Rapids, the Geologic Story of Hells Canyon by Tracy Vallier. Best book for anyone interested in the geology of this intriguing area. $25.00 pb.

About Wallowa County, People, Places, Images An interesting collection of short pieces about county history and lore. $16.00 pb

Wallowa Mountains: A Natural History Guide by Keith Pohn The only guide specific to the Wallawas covering geology, flora and fauna $19.95 pb

Please note, prices are subject to change. Inquire when ordering.